A NEWSLETTER FROM ST. MATTHIAS LUTHERAN CHURCH

Visit us on the web at www.stmatthiasgreensburg.org

(1 Cor 12:4-7) Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of working, but it is the same God who inspires them all in every one. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.

When we hear these words from St. Paul, and we think about the “gifts” that God has given us, we often think of those things that we do “well”: maybe you’re good at baking, sewing, teaching, mathematics, construction, painting, the list goes on. And when we offer those gifts to others, we often think of doing “what we do well” (I’m good at baking, I’ll make them an apple pie).

Unfortunately, we forget that God wants us to you all of the gifts He’s given us, not just the ones that we think we do “well”. In your opinion, what is it that you don’t do very well? God may be calling you to use those gifts in service to others. The question is... are we willing to use those gifts to help others, even if it means we might feel embarrassed, self-conscious, or worried about how others perceive us? Are we willing to show our love for God and our love for our neighbors in selfless, even humiliating ways?

When Jesus shared the Last Supper with His disciples, He insisted that He wash His disciples’ feet: something that was considered one of the lowest and most demeaning of tasks in their day. (John 13:34-35) And Jesus said to them: “A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; even as I have loved you, that you also love one another. By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

God calls us to love one another with all of the gifts He’s given us, and not just the ones that we feel like we do “well”. If you’re a terrible baker, bake the cookies anyway. If you’re not sure you have enough, give what you have anyway. If you’re not good at writing eloquently, write the letter of encouragement anyway. The most impactful and loving things you may do for others may be by doing things that you feel are subpar or not your best effort. But to others, they might become the most treasured blessings of all, because they know you gave them out of love for God, and love for them, even when it was something that you’re not comfortable doing. And it’s for that blessing, that I say to you: Thanks be to God. Amen.

In Christ,
Pastor Paul

Rally Day – Sunday, September 10th

Please note that Rally Day will be on Sunday, September 10th. Beginning on Rally Day, our Sunday morning worship will change to 10:15am. We’ll also be having our annual church picnic after worship. All are welcome. We’ll look forward to seeing you there!

St. Matthias Fall Cleanup Day

Saturday, September 9th

Our church’s Fall Cleanup Day has been scheduled for Saturday, September 9th, from 9am - 12 noon. Any available men, women, and children are welcomed and encouraged to come along and help us with cleaning, repairing, and beautifying God’s house as we prepare for Rally Day. Please feel free to bring along work gloves and any tools that you may have that could be helpful in our work. We’ll look forward to seeing you there!

St. Matthias Sunday

On Sunday, October 8th, we will be celebrating St. Matthias Sunday! As we celebrate St. Matthias commemoration we will also be honoring our charter members: Lou Jean Bishop and Barb Fink. Following the worship service there will be a pot luck luncheon. Sign up sheets are available in the narthex for volunteers to write down what they would like to bring. Mark your calendar and come celebrate with us!

Celebrating the Harvest on 8th

In addition to celebrating St. Matthias Sunday on October 8th, we'll also be giving thanks to God for the wonderful, abundant harvest from the 7th year of our Community Garden! We'll be including a celebratory harvest prayer at the end of our Sunday morning worship that day, to give thanks to God for all that He has so abundantly provided. This will also serve as a conclusion to this year's Community Garden harvest, and offer us a joyful look forward to next year's harvest as well. We hope you can be with us that day as we give thanks for so many of God's blessings!

Pot Luck & Bake Sale on October 8th

As we celebrate St. Matthias Sunday and the closing of our Harvest Table and the Community Garden on October 8th, we'll also be having a pot luck & bake sale to celebrate! All proceeds from the bake sale will benefit the Westmoreland County Food Bank. If you're able, please bring something to share for the bake sale and/or take some baked goods home with you! We'll look forward to seeing you there!

Save the Date

Our Annual Congregational Meeting,

Part 1 will be Sunday, November 19th immediately following the worship service. Please make arrangements to stay. The date for Part 2 will be announced in the November/December newsletter.

All Saints Sunday Carnations

For All Saints Sunday, November 5th, red & white carnations will be available for purchase for $1 to place on the altar in honor of your Saint and may be taken home after worship. A form has been included in the newsletter and envelopes are also available in the narthex. Envelopes and forms can be placed in the offering plate. The deadline for all carnation orders is Sunday, October 22nd.

You can also list the name or names of your loved ones or friends who have died within the past year to be included in the prayers on All Saints Sunday. This form is located on the table in the narthex in October.

2023 Mowing Schedule

The following is the mowing schedule for the 2023 season. On the dates that you are assigned, we ask that you try to mow toward the end of the week, if possible, so that the yard is mowed for the weekend. Feel free to switch with someone if you have a scheduling conflict. If you have any questions or problems, please contact the church office at 724-834-2457 or any member of the Property Committee. If you need fuel, fill the red 5 gallon container, and give the receipt to Eldora Crist for reimbursement. If you cannot mow on your week due to weather conditions, please make arrangements to help the next scheduled person the following week. Thank you for serving God in this important ministry.
